Dear Parents & Guardians,

Welcome to the 2015/2016 school year. You are receiving this letter because your son / daughter is in grade 9 at Glenrosa Middle School, and is registered in my English and/or Social Studies class. Here in Room 323 we are gearing up for a year jam-packed with project-based learning, tons of reading and critical thinking, & lots of fun. (Please see separate Course Outline document.)

Our department encourages students to read every day for a minimum of 20 minutes outside of class time. This can be independent reading, shared reading with a partner or younger sibling, family story time, or (my favourite) a combination of all three! Please let me know if you would like any recommendations for reading material your son / daughter might enjoy.

Please Note: Reading is the ONLY homework I assign on a regular basis.

Occasionally, other homework will be assigned. This could take the place of the reading, if your family is pressed for time.

I will be supplementing classroom materials with many items from home, most notably novels, classroom games, and team building activities. These will be marked with a sticker or stamp saying, Sanders or Sanders GMS. I am happy to loan many of these things to students. Hopefully, if you spot any at home, you can encourage their return trip to Room 323! Thank you.

I'm looking forward to working with you & your grade 9 student this year. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Ms. Jenn Sanders
